СЛАВА ІСУСУ ХРИСТУ! СЛАВА НА ВІКИ!

Dear Beloved Parishioners and Guests,

Back on Sept. 7th, 2008, I penned my first pastor's message in the bulletin, promising to hopefully "keep you abreast" of the latest developments in the parish – and I look back over these four years and discovered that I was relatively faithful to the promise. I often shared my personal views, extended invitations and even issued challenges...

I actually wish to re-address an important topic that I shared with you in the Oct. 19th bulletin of that year. I boldly approached the subject by saying: "Please let us never take our blessings for granted; let us daily express our "Attitude of Gratitude" by truly acknowledging our sincere and heartfelt thanks for every gift from God."

Now may I summarize what I wrote back then? As a parish, we wished to express our Thank You to a lovely and generous parishioner Minnie Morse who was called into the Heavenly Kingdom on 08/08/08. She kindly and gratefully chose in her Last Will and Testament to appoint St. Joseph's as the major beneficiary of her Estate. As Pastor and the Executor, I can testify she generously left $57,000.00 for our parish. We placed this great gift, not in Maintenance, but in the Church Decorating Fund and to be honest, this gave us the needed impetus to finally commence our dreamed-of stained glass and iconostas enhancement. We then turned to you, the parishioners, to generously donate towards these projects and how very quickly and generously you responded! What a more beautified church we now have!

I continued to write that it always disturbed me, wherever I have served as Pastor, to discover that so many of our Ukrainian citizens do not have a Last Will and Testament (almost 50%). It's almost as if we have convinced ourselves that we will die very quickly if we make a Will. The reality is I, as your pastor, am preparing for this final day and so must YOU!

You have worked so very hard to provide for yourself and your family and it only makes good sense that YOU choose what happens to your inheritance. Without a Will and Last Testament, our government will gladly dispose of your hard-earned savings. (or lawyers will have to choose for you!)

One of the great joys of writing a Last Will is that YOU personally choose to whom you offer your riches and possessions (no matter how large or small!) We all have heard horror stories of families destroying themselves after a funeral by actually fighting over the 'deceased' possessions'. What a sad and piteful sight – and this could be the result of people not taking time to make these important decisions during their life time.

Following Minnie Morse's good example, we gently encourage all parishioners to also consider making provision in your Will for the continuing support of St. Joe's Parish. This is a wonderful way to, not only thank God for the blessings we all have received, but also to ensure our church continues to serve future generations. A Gift that "keeps on giving.. is a living testimony to your generosity and thoughtfulness!

And then I wrote: Whoops! Was this too heavy? I realize it is – but my job as your pastor is to challenge you in all aspects of your life – spiritually, emotionally, mentally and even financially. I pray you don't mind too much, but in the meantime, I wish you a beautiful, peaceful, joyful and loveful week...

The Jesus Lifestyle

What's it about? Our culture is obsessed with lifestyle. Magazines and websites tell us what to wear, how to get fit, what to drive and how to love. Everyone wants to tell us how to live our lives. Jesus didn't leave us a lifestyle magazine; he sat down on a mountainside and began to teach.

How to deal with anger. How to handle money. What to do when faced with difficult people. Simple, memorable and profound. Jesus' words in the Sermon on the Mount are as relevant and as challenging today as they were 2,000 years ago.

In this engaging and fascinating study Nicky Gumbel takes a closer look at the Sermon on the Mount and presents, with his familiar mix of humour and wisdom the life that Jesus wants us to live. Please join us in the church auditorium Sunday mornings 10:00 am sharp - 11:00 am for this interesting video series. No books! No Homework: Everyone is Welcome!

Week 3 - Oct 28 - "Getting to know Jesus through the Old Testament"

Then, there will be a small break until Nov 18, due to Fall Supper (Nov 4) and Remembrance Day. For further info please call Sandy or Norm Dobson (204)222-2098

Sermon at Canonization of Saint Kateri Tekakwitha 10/22/12

+Richard W. Smith Archbishop of Edm, Pres. of the Cdn Conf. of Cath. Bishops

In these wondrous days here in Rome we are the blessed, privileged witnesses of an extraordinary event that brings great joy to the people of Canada, and to our sisters and brothers of the First Nations in particular. A daughter of the Mohawk and Algonquin peoples, Kateri Tekakwitha, has been canonized, raised to the glory of the altars, by Pope Benedict XVI, and by this all Native peoples are honoured. As Blessed John Paul II said of her, in a speech to Native Americans not long after her beatification, Kateri "stands before us as a symbol of the best of the heritage that is yours as North American Indians." Now that she has been added to the canon of the Church's saints, she also stands before the whole Church, indeed the entire world, as a reminder of the universal call to holiness and a model of cooperation with the mystery of grace.

God wants us to know His ways, indeed to know Him, and he has acted to enable us to know him, so that we might respond in love and cooperate with his saving plan for us. This revelation of the wondrous truth of God has been given in his Son, Jesus Christ, who has sent the promised Holy Spirit to enlighten our minds and hearts with divine wisdom and grace us with the ability to respond in faith and love.

The meeting of God's loving initiative with a grace-filled human response is on beautiful display in the life of Saint Kateri. The earliest intimations of the working of God's grace in her life were given in the name given to her by her family: Tekakwitha. This name, derived from her diminished capacity for sight, is patient of a variety of interpretations: "she who feels her way ahead"; "moving forward slowly"; "one who bumps into things"; but also "one who places things in order" or "to put all into place". This diversity of meanings has to do in one way or another with seeing what lies before. It is, of course, true that Kateri's physical sight was seriously compromised due to the smallpox from which she suffered. What is equally true, however, and what is of far greater significance, is that her inner vision was clear. Deep within her heart she had received the gift of seeing clearly the truth of Christ and his Church. It is as if God, through the very name Tekakwitha and the life of the one who bore it, has drawn attention to the limits of human vision in order to point us to the true sight that comes from faith. In this Year of Faith, the life of Kateri demonstrates that the gift of faith carries with it the capacity to see clearly the beauty of God and his plan for us, which far exceed in grandeur the sensible realities of this earth.

Here we can appreciate how our sister Kateri serves as an instructive witness for the new evangelization. These days Bishops from around the world are gathered in synod to reflect upon the call of both John Paul II and Benedict XVI to find new ways to announce the Gospel joyfully and intelligibly to the peoples of our day. Kateri reminds us that this new evangelization, to be effective, must not only be proposed anew but also find an open and ready welcome in the heart of the recipient. When the Jesuit missionary, Father de Lamberville, spoke of our Lord and the Christian faith, the Gospel message of life and hope found a home within her. No words of hers are recorded that articulate her experience. But words are not necessary. We know that our response of faith to the call of the Gospel is itself the work of grace. Thus is the witness of Kateri an invitation to all of us, who will hear the beauty of the Gospel proclaimed afresh, to ask for the grace we need to receive it with joy and respond to its call to life and hope. Only with the help of God's grace are we able, like Kateri, to make of our entire lives a living and pleasing sacrifice to God, as Saint Paul exhorts us to do. Only with divine assistance do we become, like Kateri, the mothers, brothers and sisters of Christ by doing the will of his - and our - heavenly Father.

Kateri also teaches us, in a unique way, that our response in faith to Jesus Christ brings healing. Among the most striking aspects of her witness is the miraculous transformation of her face soon after her death. From the age of four terribly scarred by the smallpox, her face was restored to its original beauty only minutes after she had died. This was preceded by the words she spoke just as her life ended: "Jesus I love you." The love of Christ for us, and our answering love for him, heals. How greatly do we need this lesson from Kateri today! We may not bear physical scars, but so many today carry deep emotional and psychological ones. These are inflicted not by smallpox but by poverty, addiction, loneliness, and betrayal. They are caused by the abuse suffered by Kateri's modern-day sisters and brothers in their time at residential schools. So much pain, so many emotional scars! Yet Kateri teaches us that no wound, however deep, should leave us without hope. Let us remember her words: "Jesus I love you." These few words sum up her entire life. Kateri's facial healing is an outward sign of the interior transformation that is given to all who hand over their lives to Christ, and who do so in love.

Yes, we are, indeed, privileged to witness this event of Kateri's canonization. We shall also be truly blessed if we learn from her example. So let us pray to our sister, our new saint, for this grace.

Dear Saint Kateri, please pray for us. By your intercession, may we receive with joy the word of our Lord, and be faithful at all times to the will of our Heavenly Father. Help us with your prayers to make of our lives a spiritual sacrifice to God, just as you did. May we so live in love with Jesus that we will know within ourselves the healing, the hope and the joy that he alone can give. Amen.
