Archeparchial Faith Development session:

"Personal Prayer Life: My Moment to Pray"

"In the morning, long before dawn, he (Jesus) got up...and went off to a lonely place and prayed there." (Mk. 1:35)

"Just as Jesus was drawn to pray to His Father, God has something to say directly to each of us as well. Prayer is a means of conversing with God Who invites us to an intimate, growing relationship with Him. It is the Father Himself who draws us to His Son Jesus. When we enter personal prayer, we give Him total access to our life, and when God speaks, nothing remains the same.

The deeper the relationship, the greater the desire is to spend time alone with Jesus, because we have encountered the One Who seeks us, and in Whom we can rest.

Firstly, we will glance over what critics say about prayer. After that, we will outline the benefits of a personal prayer life, how to develop it, as well as review different approaches, methods and style of prayer. Some time will be spent on the practical experience of personal prayer, as well.
