СЛАВА ІСУСУ ХРИСТУ! СЛАВА НА ВІКИ!

Dear Beloved of St. Joseph's,

In the pursuit of the comforts of life there is always a threat that we can come to rely on money so much that money will become our master and will even go so far as to take the place of our God! . "No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other; or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon." (Matthew 6:24) Let us be very careful that money, and that which money can buy, not become a priority for us and that it not take over our heart!

Let us always remember that the things that are most precious cannot be bought for money. For example... Money will not buy you respect. Money will not buy you well-adjusted and well-behaved children. Money will not buy you beauty of nature. Money will not buy you common sense. Money will not buy you a clear conscience. Money will not buy you a purpose in life. Money will not buy you integrity. Money will not buy you good friends. Money will not buy you a long life. Money will not buy you a close-knit family. Money will not buy you an open mind. Money will not buy you a worry-free day. Money will not buy you trust. Money will not buy you a new beginning. Money will not buy you a great idea. Money will not buy you an honest politician. Money will not buy you peace of mind. Money will not buy you patience. Money will not buy you a good name for yourself. Money will not buy you happy memories. Money will not buy you a time to relax. Money will not buy you a strong work ethic. Money will not buy you a positive attitude. Money will not buy you a happy home. Money will not buy you even the smallest dream. Money will not buy you an appreciation of simple things. Money will not buy you peace in the world. Money will not buy you a golden anniversary. Money will not buy you talent. Money will not buy you a second chance in life. Money will not buy you quality time with your children. Money will not buy you wisdom. Money will not buy you happiness. Money will not buy you humility. Money will not buy you a good reputation. Money will not buy you a 25 hour day. Money will not buy you a good relationship with your children. Money will not buy you youth. Money will not buy you justice. Money will not buy you a proper perspective. Money will not buy you selflessness. And... money will not buy you love!!!

Today, please ask yourself: "What are my priorities in life? What is most important to me? What do I dream about and what do I work for?" What a tragedy it would be if we were to go through life and in the end realize that we spent all of our time, money and energy on things that were pointless and had no value or worth. Remember that our responsibility in life is to take whatever God blesses us with and use it wisely, because ultimately, it all belongs to God anyway. He has simply entrusted us for a short time to manage His riches for Him!

May this be a wonderful restful and peaceful summer with all those you love and cherish as we at St. Joseph's cherish you!

St. Joseph's Catechism Ministry

Even as our church year winds down, we are already doing some planning for the fall.

We are currently looking for Catechism Instructors for the following grades:

Grade 2 (Team Teach), Grade 5 (Team Teach), Grade 7

"Team Teach" means you will be teaching alongside the current instructor. We've found this works well for individuals with busy schedules in that they are able to trade off days as required. I encourage any parents with children in the program to step forward to fill these positions. However, I also invite anyone feeling called to help in this ministry, especially the young adults in our parish.

There are youth in our parish who have finished catechism, but still need to be involved in our community.
It's the ideal time to start a youth program! This could take on many different forms. I would be happy to support this ministry and the individuals willing to take it on.

Before you start enjoying your summer holidays, please let me know if you can assist in anyway!
