СЛАВА ІСУСУ ХРИСТУ! СЛАВА НА ВІКИ!

Парафія святого Йосифа сердечно вітає всіх гостей, які прибули до нас на Богослуження. Нехай Бог вас благословить!

Dear Parishioners and Guests,

On the first Sunday of November, the Ukrainian Catholic Church celebrates the memory of one of its most outstanding church leaders of the past century, the great Metropolitan Andrew Sheptytsky. He guided our church as a modern day Moses-through many trying phases-the Tsarist persecution, the Nazi occupation, and the Communist infiltration. People looked up to him for he was a gentle, compassionate, generous and holy man ~ not to overlook his lofty physical stature. He was around seven feet tall, but carried himself with grace and humility. As providence would have it, Metropolitan Andrew served our Church as Archbishop of Lviv for 43 years (Jan.1,1901 - Nov.1, 1944)

He became Archbishop Metropolitan at a time of very difficult economic challenges in Ukraine, impacting on many, including those of our family roots. Opportunities opened up for immigration and starting anew in Canada. Many Ukrainians bravely took up this challenge and set up homesteads in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta.

Times were rough and there were many pioneer hardships. Among them was the lack of priests and churches. However, these immigrants had a deep social and spiritual sense, usually settling in one area and being of mutual help and encouragement for one another. Their faith united them and gave them hope. So they built little churches where they could gather for worship, most often without a priest.

Serving these immigrants was a constant concern for Metropolitan Andrew for already non-Catholic religions were taking advantage of the priestly shortage, had unqualified men masquerading as Catholic clergy, and were proselytizing. In 1910 Metropolitan Andrew decided that he would visit Canada and see for himself what was necessary to deal with the situation. He remained in Canada for several months and visited most of the larger settlements.

This visitation of the Ukrainian immigrants by Archbishop Andrew made a big impression on his people. They were in awe of his stamina, his kindness, his support, and determination. Just his presence and deep concern helped improve the situation. A ray of new hope struck their hearts as he promised to send them more priests and even a bishop.

On his way back to Ukraine, Metropolitan Andrew took the long way around. It was paramount for him to get to Rome and to visit the Pope. He related to him what he had witnessed. He presented a clear picture of the danger the Ukrainian settlers found themselves in, and the absolute necessity for creating a separate eparchy (diocese) with a Ukrainian Catholic Bishop.

In the meantime, some practical strategy had to be implemented. In Lviv, the Archbishop opened a seminary for young men willing to become missionaries to serve the Ukrainians in Canada. He held conferences with the clergy keeping them posted as to the Canadian situation and began to give leaves of absences to priests who had courage to go to Canada.

Continued...

Finally the Roman Catholic hierarchy of Canada were moved by the stirring report of Fr. Achilles Delaere, CSSR at the 1910 Eucharistic Congress in Montreal. It was backed up by the appeal of another devoted Belgian Redemptorist working with the Ukrainians, Fr. Henrich Boels, who totally understood their need for a bishop.

The Roman Catholic bishops gave their support. Two years later the Holy See gave the Ukrainian immigrants their first bishop, (Blessed) Nykyta Budka, thus establishing a Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy in Canada. The big dream of Metropolitan Andrew had been realized and we are now reaping the benefit of this blessing.

The Great Metropolitan also saw the good work that the Redemptorists of Belgium were doing in service of the Ukrainian Catholic immigrants. Thus he strove to get the order established in Ukraine. It flourished immediately and by 1921 Ukrainian Redemptorists were serving our people in Canada.

We pray earnestly for his beatification and eventual canonization.

Fr. Frank

A Prayer for Beatification of the Servant of God Andrew Sheptytsky

*O my God, I adore your infinite majesty with all the powers of my soul.
I thank You for the graces and gifts which You have bestowed upon your faithful Servant of God, Metropolitan Sheptytsky. I ask You to glorify him also on earth.
I beseech You to grant me the favour which I humbly ask from your great mercy. Amen.*
