СЛАВА ІСУСУ ХРИСТУ! СЛАВА НА ВІКИ!
 Парафія святого Йосифа сердечно вітає всіх гостей, які прибули до нас на Богослуження. Нехай Бог вас благословить!

Glory be to Jesus Christ! Glory be Forever!
 The parish of St. Joseph extends a warm welcome to all our guests. We are pleased that you have come to pray with us. May the Lord bless you!

Dear Beloved Parishioners and Guests,

A warm and heartfelt THANK YOU to all the parishioners who happily participated in our Parish Praznyk last Sunday. And a special 'thank you' to all the volunteers who made it so successful – be it in the kitchen, or the bbq or setting up the tent and all the tables for a sunny outdoor picnic! Alas! The weather was not conducive but still a picnic atmosphere was definitely created in our hall. God bless you all!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK.

Time to focus on another parish year of activities and programs – which we hope will provide a deepening of faith and continue to be a source of spiritual growth. We gather together as a Christian community to hear the Word of God, to pray with one another and to strengthen each other's faith. This truly is our 'raison d'etre'!!!

Catechism registration has already begun and we encourage all parents to enroll their children in our excellent program. The teaching of the Catholic faith is the primary responsibility of all parents. Because of your love for one another, God has gifted you with new life – a child made in God's image and likeness! You have made a serious commitment to give your child the best possible foundation – good health, good morals and a Christian upbringing. Please take this parental responsibility very seriously.

Happily we have young parish volunteers – our Catechism teachers – who willingly help you in this process. These teachers give freely of their valuable time and energy to diligently prepare their religious lessons and then faithfully come to church and share their faith with your children. Dear parents, please respect and appreciate the "Gift of Love" so generously given by bringing your children every Sunday at 10:00 am sharp and then worshipping with them at the 11:00 am Liturgy. Your children look to you for a living example of faith. You must realize – you either teach or unteach your child the importance of your Christian faith. And this is an absolute fact!!!

Ah! We didn't forget our Adult Parishioners! Yes, we are commencing our excellent 'Grow in Faith' program on Sunday, Sept. 28th at 10:00 – 11:00 am in the monastery basement – so not to interfere with the Children's program. Please enter thru the backdoor. Read about this program elsewhere in the bulletin. We want You to come!

And do keep each Sunday bulletin for handy reference. It always amazes me how much info Cynthia is able to squeeze in the bulletin – at least she lets me write the message and prepare the Liturgy schedule. God bless our Cynthia!

Let us continue to pray for good harvesting weather (I still am a farmer at heart!) And may the good Lord bless us all in this coming year!

* "Just keep getting the truth out! Please don't let us down!" *

* Archbishop of New York, Cardinal TIMOTHY DOLAN, blogs about Ukraine... *

* Last week I called my friend Sviatoslav Shevchuk, the Major Archbishop for the Greek Catholics of Ukraine. *

* I have grown to admire this young, brave brother bishop over the last years, as we have often spent time in Rome together, and especially when I was with him last year for the dedication of the daring new Cathedral of the Resurrection in Kiev. *

* The Catholic Church in Ukraine is young, alive, growing, and prophetic. This, from a worldly point of view, is illogical, near miraculous, as Greek Catholics were viciously persecuted by Stalin in the years of Soviet oppression. Even after the breakup of the communist empire, and the restoration of freedom in Ukraine, Catholics were not given back their former churches that had been given to the Russian Orthodox, and the courageous yet decimated community almost had to start afresh. *

* Through the optic of the Gospel, we know that "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the faith," so believers are hardly surprised by the vitality of the Greek Catholic Church in Ukraine. *

* Archbishop Shevchuk, like his predecessor, Cardinal Lubomyr Husar, now retired, is a true "confessor of the faith," a pastor revered by his people, a leader in bringing unity, peace, and hope to a country threatened by thugs and thieves within, and an aggressor on the border. *

* I check in with him, because I worry about him, want to encourage him, and am inspired by him. My call last week found him uncharacteristically grim and apprehensive. *

* "Timothy, we are under attack! Our country is under siege from Russia! Our people are being murdered, their homes destroyed, not by alleged separatists in Ukraine wanting to return to Russia, but by Russian troops and mercenaries. Please see that the truth gets out. There is an invasion here." *

* Last week, the Catholic bishops of Ukraine issued a chilling statement that their beloved country is "flowing in blood," and urged Western governments -- like ours -- not to become "accomplices in the sin of murder." *

* Just so we would understand, the Ukrainian bishops were blunt: "This peaceful, sovereign nation has been subjected to a direct military intervention by a Northern neighbour -- hundreds of units of heavy weaponry and technology, thousands of armed mercenaries and soldiers of Russia's standing army are crossing our borders of Ukraine, sowing death and destruction." *

* After the Second World War, when the Iron Curtain separated Central and Eastern Europe from the free democracies of the West, Catholics in the United States were in solidarity with persecuted Christians in Poland, Ukraine, Croatia, Lithuania, Hungary, and the other countries under Russia's jackboot. We spoke up for them; our government listened. *

* We had hoped it would now be different. Things looked so bright in Ukraine for a while. It appeared that religion was free, the Church encouraging a just, civil society. *

* Apparently, a prosperous, free, independent Ukraine, with freedom of religion leading to a revived faith, is a threat to a neighbour with a history of interference. The jackboots have apparently come out of storage. *

* I asked my brave brother bishop how I could help. "Just keep getting the truth out! Please don't let us down!" I'm trying... *

* On this Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows, I commend to you a Church and a Nation, Ukraine, with her at the foot of the Cross. *

Fr. These compelling episodes were filmed in 50 locations throughout 15 countries. Not a video lecture, Church history or scripture study, this engaging and interesting program uses the art, architecture, literature, music and all the treasures of the Catholic tradition to illuminate the timeless teachings of the Church. The Catholicism DVD's reveal these truths in a visually-breath taking and compelling way, with original, high-definition cinematography.

Let us thank our catechists, who are vital to the life of our Church, our Family. Let us pray for our catechists and our children to be in communion with Jesus Christ.

Blessing of Our Children

Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.
O Lord, our God, you give us the opportunity to begin the school year so that we can come to know and love you and your glorious creation.

We implore you to send down Your Spirit upon parents that they may guide their children according to your Divine Plan; upon teachers that they may fulfill the responsibility of instructing their pupils; and especially upon ALL Students that they may respond eagerly and with patience to their tasks and thereby grow in wisdom and love.

O Mary, Mother of God, look down upon the students, protect them, guide them, and grant them a successful academic year. May God, who is a loving Father, bless you, protect you, and grant you the necessary graces to complete your school year +in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen
