Glory be to Jesus Christ! Glory be Forever!
The parish of St. Joseph extends a warm welcome to all our guests. We are pleased that you have come to pray with us. May the Lord bless you!

СЛАВА ІСУСУ ХРИСТУ! СЛАВА НА ВІКИ!
Парафія святого Йосифа сердечно вітає всіх гостей, які прибули до нас на Богослуження. Нехай Бог вас благословить!

Dear Beloved Parishioners and Guests,

Two friends walked into a store to buy a paper and the salesman was impatient and simply growled at the both of them. One friend said to the other: "He is very unfriendly, isn't he?" to which the friend answered: "Oh, he's always like that." "So why do you continue to be polite to him?" And the friend replied: "Why should I allow HIM to determine my mood?"

From the Pastor's Desk

Let us think about this. Very often we allow a misconduct of a family member, a friend, a co-worker or even a perfect stranger to dictate our own mood. When one is impatient with us or unkind to us...when we feel that someone is taking us for granted.. when we find someone's words to be offensive to us... when someone causes us a disappointment or inconvenience... when someone does not call us often enough... when someone talks too much or sits there and says nothing... when someone takes too much or gives too little... we allow all of this to affect our mood. Why do we allow this to happen? These people are not killing our mood – WE are doing this to ourselves! Always remember that it is OUR life and it should be under OUR control.

Someone else's carelessness toward you can always be rejected. You can always say "I might not like what you have done, but you cannot touch me!" Of course this is far easier said than done and I think that in such situations, where we are tempted to allow someone else's behavior to affect our own, we should turn to Jesus for help. Ask Jesus to give you some proper perspective. Ask Him to give you the strength to rise above a situation that you don't like and to get on with your life with no hurt feelings, no anger and no resentment. In most cases you cannot change the world around you. So ask Jesus to help him change you. It is OUR peace that is at stake.

And, while on the topic of inner peace please let us always remember that we should keep two days free of fear. One of the days that we should not allow fear to touch is Yesterday, with all its mistakes and cares and pains. Yesterday has passed forever beyond our control. We cannot undo a single act we performed; we cannot erase a single word we said. Yesterday has passed.

The other day we should not worry about is Tomorrow - with all its possible adversities and its burdens. We only have to remember that Tomorrow's sun will rise, either in splendor or behind a mask of clouds, but it will rise. There is no sense in worrying about tomorrow's day.

This leaves only one day, Today. Any person can manage just one day. It is not the experience of Today that drives a person mad, it is the remorse or bitterness of something which happened Yesterday and the dread of what Tomorrow may bring. Let us, therefore, live but one day at a time...

Back on April 22, 1998, I wrote an article on METROPOLITAN SHEPTYTSKY, which was published simultaneously in the Toronto Star, Edm Journal and Saskatoon Phoenix and then other newspapers were quick to publish it. You may read it....

Catholic Bishop saved Jews in wartime Ukraine

by Father Bohdan Lukie

I remember when the Jewish visitor came to Roblin, MB. And when he told me about a modern-day Moses. Ours, and his!

The year was 1959. The place was St. Vladimir's College, a minor seminary, run by the Redemptorist Fathers. I was in Grade 11. With 49 other students, I listened to this Jewish Ukrainian speak. He praised one of the greatest European prelates of this century, Metropolitan Andrei Sheptytsky, who headed the Ukrainian Catholic Church for nearly 50 years until his death on Nov. 1, 1944

I had never heard of Sheptytsky before. I was just a farm kid from Grandview, MB. And yet here was Kurt Lewin, a Holocaust survivor, a Haganah commander during the siege of Jerusalem, an Israeli Army officer, the great-grandson of Isaac Schmelkes – a rabbi of Lviv still revered by orthodox Jewry as a spiritual and intellectual giant – telling me about his Ukrainian saviour!

Lewin told us that we, as future priests of the Ukrainian Catholic Church, should know what our Metropolitan had done for the Jews of Ukrainian Galicia under Nazi occupation. He spoke about how his own life was saved when the Metropolitan gave him shelter in Lviv's St. George's Cathedral, how the Metropolitan, who stood resolutely in favour of Ukraine's independence and shared in the general euphoria of liberation from the Soviets, nevertheless kept a critical vigilance toward German rule.

In February 1942, he even dared to lodge a protest against the destruction of the Galician Jewish community with Heinrich Himmler himself. The Nazi who delivered Himmler's response bluntly told the Metropolitan that if it were not for his age, he would have been shot for meddling in matters which should not concern him.

The Metropolitan saw things differently. He persisted with works of Christian charity. He soon mobilized a Christian opposition to Nazi rule in western Ukraine. He let the Vatican know what was happening, in late August 1942, when he wrote Pope Pius XII, alerting the Holy Father to the "almost diabolical" nature of the German regime. A few days later he repeated that condemnation in a letter to Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, Prefect of the Congregation of Eastern Churches.

He also encouraged Christian resistance. Working with his brother, Klymentii, leader of Lviv's Studite monks, the Metropolitan gathered together a small army of nuns and priests who would risk their own lives in clandestine rescue and sanctuary operations. False baptismal certificates were arranged for no less than 200 Jewish children, who were then smuggled to monasteries, orphanages, and convent schools in and around Lviv. All of these children's lives were saved, 15 in the Metropolitan's own residence. This at a time when sheltering Jews was a criminal offence punishable by death.

Rabbi Dr. David Kahana also survived thanks to the Metropolitan's intervention. Later he drew up a list of over 240 Ukrainian Catholic priests who saved Jews. This good rabbi noted that his list was not exhaustive.

Thousands of Jewish Ukrainian lives were saved at the Metropolitan's command. And all remember how, in November 1942, Sheptytsky issued what was to become his best-known pastoral letter, "Thou Shalt Not Kill". His message on the sanctity of human life was a clear condemnation of genocide.

Attempts to have the Metropolitan proclaimed a saint have foundered on the protests of some Poles, on the propaganda of the Soviets and on the indifference or hostility of certain groups with the Jewish diaspora. In 1994, in his book A Journey Through Illusions, Lewin wrote about how he had tried to interest the American Jewish Congress and the Anti-Defamation League of Brit'h in "this extraordinary sage of assistance". That was in 1951! No one cared then. No one seems to be interested now.

As Lewin has observed, even Yad Vashem, dedicated to keeping alive the memory of the Holocaust, "seems to have difficulty in recognizing the man's compassion and assistance extended to the Jewish community in his diocese at the time of its martyrdom and destruction." To this day Sheptytsky is not honoured in Israel.

Of late there has been much debate about whether the Catholic Church did enough to save Jews during the Nazi terror. There can be no doubt that Sheptytsky did, acting as a leader of the Ukrainian Catholic Church, as a Ukrainian patriot, and as a man of rare intellect and spirituality. If he had been discovered, he would have been martyred, joining the many millions of other Ukrainian victims of the Holocaust.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the State of Israel which on the 22nd of April will pay special honour to those who risked everything to save Jews. I shall pray that this be the year in which Israel recognizes Metropolitan Andrei Sheptytsky as a "Righteous Gentile", for many years ago, a Holocaust survivor told me that this man's deeds were truly holy.

Perhaps if Tel Aviv finally honours Sheptytsky as a Righteous Gentile, then one day soon, Rome will also confirm that Metropolitan Andrei was a saint – a Moses whom Itzhak and I can share.
