DEVOTIONS TO BLESSED VASYL
 7:00 PM WEDNESDAY

Slava Isusu Khrystu! Glory be to Jesus Christ!

During the summer months many of our Ukrainian parishes decide not to print bulletins or only once a month. The pastors realize that many parishioners are absent and therefore, often the bulletins go unread. We will have an abbreviated bulletin each week but often the message from the Pastor will be some gems from my personal files for your perusal and enjoyment:

Pastor's Desk

FRIENDSHIP

It has been said that if you have but one good friend, you are truly blessed, more than one, you are doubly blessed. I feel a friend should be cared for as a rare flower, sprinkled with kindness, nourished with love and never, never taken for granted.

Friends are one of the most precious gifts in life. How lonely it would be if we had no friends to share our joys, comfort us when we are blue, and listen, really listen to us when we talk. We can be completely ourselves, never needing to stand on ceremony because there is an unspoken bond between us. Troubles are halved when shared with friends, and burdens are lightened because they care; they truly enrich our hearts.

Friendship means generously extending ourselves to others, always striving to make new acquaintances. As the flowers in our garden are all unique in their own way so, too, are the different friends we meet. Each friend contributes something to us in life. It does not take every waking moment with friends to seal a friendship; distance can not change the warmth and love you have for one another.

Criticism and jealousy toward a friend should be avoided at all costs. Friends, like fragile flowers, are worth protecting because they are so very special. If they are not loved for themselves only, it is not a real friendship. No one need be cold and lonely when they could be warm with the sunshine of friends.

I once read a lovely verse that has a precious lesson for all of us.

"Make new friends, but keep the old, those are silver, these are gold."

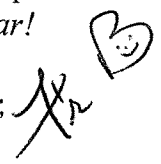

I am reminded of a good old Protestant hymn written in 1855 by Joseph Scriven:

"What a friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear!

What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer!

O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear,

All because we do not carry everything to God in prayer!"

"How happy are those who know what sorrow means for they will be given courage and comfort!"

COURAGE IS

Courage is ...a smile when your heart is broken.

Courage is ...determination to go on when it would be easier to quit.

Courage is ...doing the 'right thing' when the 'right thing' isn't happening to you.

Courage is ...believing something good is going to happen when all looks hopeless.

Courage is ...believing there will be mountain top experiences when you're in the valley

Courage is ...reaching out to help others with their dreams when yours lie buried.

Courage is ...facing your fears and conquering them one by one.

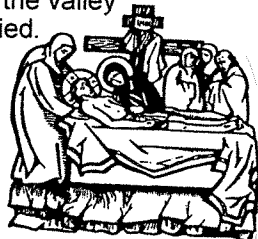

Courage is ...giving to a worthy cause when funds are low.

Courage is ...forgiving those who have hurt you.

Courage is ...unconditional love.

Courage is ...a gift from God.

Courage is ...faith in action.

Also, we express our thanks to Lesia Sianchuk and the singers, as well as all the priests and deacons, who led us in song and prayer.

And finally we thank all those who participated in our feast day celebrations that day.
