Слава Ісусу Христу!

Glory be to Jesus Christ!

Dear Parishioners,

Just a few days ago, while out for a walk, I passed a small café. By the entrance, there was a sign with the following message: No wifi, but conversation is free. Our modern gadgets, which are usually maintained by a monthly fee, may provide us with a great level of convenience; however, one must be aware that there may be another cost mounting, which may influence the quality of our relationships. Technology, sooner or later needs to be updated, and there is always a cost to be paid. Our relationship with God and with others also in a sense needs to be updated, and the only thing that is required is a willingness to converse with God and one another.

This coming Friday, August 14, 2015, a very special event will be taking place in our parish, which everyone is invited to attend. During the 7:00 p.m. Divine Liturgy, Eumir Bautista, will be making his first profession of the religious vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience as a Redemptorist. Many of you may be familiar with Eumir. He was part of the Welcome Home community for several years. He recently completed his novitiate year at the North American Redemptorist Novitiate in Toronto. After this special year of prayer, reflection, and discernment, one makes a profession of religious vows. It is certainly a privilege that Eumir's profession will be taking place in our parish. Please come on Friday, to witness this wonderful event and prayerfully support Eumir.

On the next day, Saturday August 15, another great holyday of our liturgical year is celebrated: the feast of the Dormition of the Mother of God. On this day, we remember Mary's passing, her falling asleep in the Lord and her glorification in heaven. On this day, flowers are blessed. Please remember to bring some to church on this day.

Peace and Prayers,
Father Dmytro

Parking East Side of St. Joseph's Ukrainian Catholic Church

In our last parish bulletin we were directed not to park on the East side of our Church as some vehicles had notes posted on their windshields advising the owners that they would be towed.

With the help of one of the parishioners, Joanne from the Perogy Crew it was discovered that the notes originated from the MLCC (Liquor) Store in the Mall.

I talked with Leo the Assistant Manager at the MLCC Store and he advised me that an overzealous new employee reacted when a beer delivery was not able to access the delivery entrance. You can appreciate that the delivery was not scheduled as normal during the week, but on the weekend to meet the demand for the Long Weekend.

Leo assured me that the MLCC is a good neighbour, and recognizes that being a good neighbour means accommodating St. Joseph's Church in times of need such as Sunday and Saturday evening services.

With the opportunity to park during our Saturday and Sunday Services I request that our parishioners respect our neighbours by following a few simple steps:

Try to allow our elderly and handicapped parishioners the stalls close to the handicapped door.

Ensure that your vehicle does not block the rear doors of the Stores in the Mall as these are secondary means of egress in times of emergency or other store activities.

Park close to the curbs provided to allow access to the Stores.

Do not leave valuables in plain sight as this is a temptation that should be avoided.

I am pleased that our neighbouring merchants listened to our concern and were pleased to accommodate our Parish.

Institution of the Feast of the Dormition of the Mother of God.

The feast of the Dormition is one of the oldest of Marian feasts. It began in Jerusalem shortly after the Council of Ephesus. The original celebration in honor of the Dormition under the influence of the Council of Ephesus in 431, emphasized the privilege of her Divine Motherhood, and hence, it was called "The Feast of Mary, the Mother of God." In one of the eulogies in honor of St. Theodosius the Great (529), there is mention that on the 15th of August, the Palestinian monks annually celebrated with great solemnity "The Memory of the Mother of God", that is, the memory of her Dormition. In Syria, in the fifth century, this feast was called "The Memory of the Blessed One". In the sixth century this feast received its present day title: "The Dormition of the Most Holy Mother of God".

Emperor Maurice (582-602) extended this feast throughout the entire Byzantine empire and commanded that it be celebrated on the 15th of August, for on that day he gained a brilliant victory over the Persians.

The feast of the Dormition appeared in the West under the influence of the East, at a somewhat later date. It was accepted in Rome under Pope Sergius I (687-701), and from Rome it passed over to the other countries of Europe.

After obtaining the opinions of all the bishops of the Catholic Church, in his Apostolic Constitution "Most merciful God" of the first of November 1950, Pope Pius XII (1958), solemnly proclaimed to the whole world, "By the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and our own authority, we proclaim, declare and define as a truth revealed by God, that the Immaculate Mother of God, the Ever-Virgin Mary, having ended the course of her life on earth, was taken body and soul into heavenly glory".

*"Come all you lovers of the feast, let us form choirs and fill the Church with our hymns in honor of the falling asleep of the Ark of God. Today heaven indeed opens its bosom to receive the Mother of the One whom the universe cannot contain. The earth gives back the Source of Life and receives the blessing of the Lord. The choir of angels and apostles look with awe as they see the One who gave birth to the Prince of Life now herself pass from life to life. Let us all bow together before her and say: "O Lady, do not forget the children of your house who celebrate your holy Dormition in faith."
(Vespers of the Feast of Dormition)*
