Who do I look like?

Often, we hear comments like, “He looks like his father.” “She looks her mom.” From a faith perceptive, during the time of Great Lent, all of us, are called to become more aware of our “appearance”. After all, each of us have been created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). Either we are moving towards this image or moving away from it. The time of Great Lent helps us to realize what direction we are going. May it be in a direction that will help us to reflect the glory of God.

Great Lent: A time for liberation.

The time of Great Lent gives us the opportunity to participate in the liberation brought by Jesus to all those who are oppressed by the demons of self-reliance, power, and self-interest. During this season we seek to understand the meaning of Jesus' death and resurrection with the ultimate goal of changing our lives.

Sacrament of Reconciliation & God's Mercy

“In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God forgives our sins, which he truly blots out; and yet sin leaves a negative effect on the way we think and act. But the mercy of God is stronger even than this. It becomes indulgence on the part of the Father who, through the Bride of Christ, his Church, reaches the pardoned sinner and frees him from every residue left by the consequences of sin, enabling him to act with charity, to grow in love rather than to fall back into sin.” Pope Francis, Misericordiae Vultus, JUBILEE OF MERCY

Mercy before Judgment

During the Jubilee of Mercy, we are called to experience the joy of encountering the transforming power of the Godly life and to rediscover God's infinite mercy to all of us. Pope Francis tells us “to put mercy before judgment.” Like Mary, he calls us “to become bearers of Christ and let ourselves be embraced by the mercy of God who waits for us and forgives everything.”

The First Sunday of Great Lent

The first Sunday of Lent is called the Sunday of Orthodoxy. It is the day we celebrate the return of icons to the churches. Icons were venerated in the Eastern Church until the reign of Leo III (717-741 A.D.) when under the influence of two bishops from Asia Minor, he decreed that the veneration of icons was idol worship.

This decree marked the beginning of a long bloody battle against sacred images in the Eastern Church. Icons were destroyed or burned and their defenders cast into prison, exiled and even tortured. This battle lasted, with short intervals of peace, until 842 A.D. when Empress Theodora restored the use and veneration of icons. A synod at Constantinople was convoked which restored the veneration of holy images. The right way to use icons was defined, saying that the icon should be honored or venerated, but not worshipped as an idol in itself.

On the first Sunday of the Great Lent the icons were brought back to the churches in solemn procession. That day is remembered as the triumph of orthodoxy (tradition) over the iconoclasts (those who opposed the use of sacred images).

The heart of Eastern Christianity, the inner mystery of its radiant beauty, the source of its worship and teaching is the glorification of Christ, the living God, through whom we know the Father and from whom we receive the Holy Spirit.

Icons, hymns, prayers, worship and liturgy of the Eastern Church unceasingly focus our attention, our hearts, minds, and spirits on Jesus Christ: His person, redeeming message, and divinity. Icons are windows into that holy realm where God and the saints now dwell. By beholding of the sacred icons, each liturgical year as events are celebrated, we see the unfolding of Our Salvation.

Glory Be to Jesus Christ!

Glory Forever!

Mary: A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother

As Catholics, we have a profound reverence for the Blessed Mother. We turn to her in prayer, in the Liturgy, in the Rosary, and in Marian devotions. We honour her with special feast days, celebrating the significant events in her life. We place icons of her in our churches and homes.

The better we know Mary, the better we will know her Son

Mary: A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother is an extraordinary pilgrimage that reveals Mary's unique role in God's Kingdom and in our lives.

Filmed on location in the Holy Land, this eight part DVD series will place you in the midst of the powerful drama of Mary's earthly life, taking you through her joys....and her sorrows. You will deepen your devotion to Mary as you discover our Blessed Mother in a uniquely personal way.

Through Mary you will be drawn closer to Christ as she leads you to a more profound and personal relationship with her Son.
