THE DORMITION OF THE MOTHER OF GOD AUGUST 15

The first feast of the liturgical year is the Nativity of Mary (September 8) and the last feast of the church year is the Dormition (August 15). There are no relics of the Mother of God. This confirms what the Church has always kept in its Tradition: that Mary ascended to heaven with her body.

We do not know the time or place of Mary's death. There are two traditions: one, she died in Jerusalem; the second, she died in Ephesus. Dormition means "passage through death," or "the falling asleep." Assumption signifies "ascension into heaven."

The feast of the Dormition is a second Pascha, a passage from death to life, because we believe that Mary, like her Son, has passed through death and like Him she has risen body and soul. This icon expresses the hope of every Christian who waits for the hour of death as the passage into new life, because of the victory of the resurrected Christ. Each death is a new and personal Pascha.

In preparation for the feast, a two-week fast is prescribed (little practiced nowadays). Historically, the Fast of Dormition can be traced to the 9th century but it was officially introduced into the Byzantine Church in the 12th century.

According to an old custom, flowers and medicinal herbs are blessed after the Divine Liturgy on the Feast of the Dormition. According to traditional belief, after Mary's assumption, her tomb was filled with a "heavenly fragrance" and flowers. The herbs, used as natural medicine, are blessed in commemoration of the numerous healing and extraordinary graces bestowed on the pilgrims at Mary's tomb.

HISTORY OF THE FEAST

The origin of the feast is connected with her public veneration since the fourth century. The solemn proclamation of Mary as the "Theotokos" at the Council of Ephesus (431 A.D.) greatly enhanced her public veneration.

At the beginning of the 6th century, a basilica was built over the tomb of Mary in Gethsemane. The feast of Mary celebrated on August 15 took on a new meaning and became the solemn celebration of her death and assumption under the name of the Feast of the Dormition.

The solemn celebration of the feast was extended to the entire East during the 6th century. In the middle of the 7th century, the Feast of the Dormition was introduced to Rome where it gradually spread to the Western Church. In the 8th century, the Western Church changed the name of the feast to the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The feast of the Dormition is one of the 12 major feasts of the Eastern Church and is celebrated with great solemnity.
