From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The "first impression" is usually something we do not forget. Whether it is "good" or "not so good", the initial experience can and certainly does influence how one sees and thinks about someone or something. Being aware of this power can help us "to keep on our toes" to strive to see the "truth" and not take it for granted. The Cross is often taken for granted. For some it may be a decoration. For others it may be a piece of jewelry. There is much wisdom in the saying "there is more (to somebody/something) than meets the eye". On this day, the Church calls us to look beyond what we see. In other words, to look past the first impression. Today, the Sunday after the Exaltation of the Precious and Living Cross, the cross is displayed before us to remind us of God's love for us. A love that is always precious and life changing. In other words, a good impression that touches the heart.

Next Sunday, September 25, is our Parish Praznyk. Such a day is always a special moment in the life of a parish. It is a time to thank God for our parish, to honor the patron of our parish, Saint Joseph, and a time to celebrate our faith community. There will be only one Divine Liturgy next Sunday at 10:00 am. Following our worship in church, lunch will be served in the hall. Please plan to attend.

Our catechism classes start today. I cannot stress enough the importance of this program in our parish. God blesses all those involved in so many ways. As I write these few words, there is still a need for one teacher. If interested, please contact me or our catechism coordinator, Michelle Thiessen.

Just a reminder, at the end of today's Divine Liturgy we sing "To Your Cross.." with profound bows and everyone is invited to venerate the cross before leaving church. This hymn helps us to connect the Cross with the Resurrection. This faith connection will always leave a good impression of God's love on our hearts.

Peace and Prayers,
Fr. Dmytro

St. Joseph's Out Reach Ministry

The Out Reach Ministry is very grateful for the many blessings we have shared as a parish family and community. Your generosity and ongoing support, especially to those who come to The Welcome Home for the Thursday Family Night meals, is very much appreciated. Please consider preparing a meal this year and meet the people of this community. Please also continue to support this Ministry with monetary donations, non-perishable food items and prayers.

Thanksgiving is the weekend of October 9th and we will be preparing and delivering hampers. Please keep in mind that your donations will go a long way to purchasing of items necessary for the hampers. If you know of anyone needing a Thanksgiving hamper, please call Iris at 339-2325 by September 27th.

*"Make us worthy Lord, to serve others who live and die in poverty or hunger.
Give them, through our hands, this day their daily bread, and by our understanding love, give peace and joy."*

"Youth Group" one Friday night and one Sunday afternoon per month.

"Family Night" Thursdays, from 5 to 7pm —need a driver to transport our neighbours home.

"Adult Rec Night" one Friday evening per month—need Adults to help plan and run this program.

"Ministry of the Handyman" on a need-be basis to help with the upkeep of this fantastic old home. Please pray about this and contact Justine at whome01@mymts.net or 204-946-5352.

Patriarch Sviatoslav Consecrates Unique church Ukrainian Catholic University

In Lviv on September 11, the Head of the UGCC, His Beatitude Sviatoslav Shevchuk, consecrated the unique, three-section University Church of the Holy Wisdom of God, which is located on the territory of UCU's new campus. The University Church of the Holy Wisdom of God is a special shrine for Ukraine. It is three churches at once: The Crypt of the Lord's Tomb, the Lower Church of St. Clement I, Pope of Rome, and the main University Church of the Holy Wisdom of God with the pastoral center. The architecture of the church presents the main moments of salvation history and calls visitors to a pilgrimage through the sacraments to a joyful mission in the world. The ramps between the churches invite spiritual companions to a liturgical procession "from glory to glory." Because movement, a common pilgrimage, and solidarity are the visible alternatives to stagnation, theoretical abstraction, and individualistic alienation.

"I think it is important that we ask ourselves to whom this church is dedicated, who is that wisdom which we want to worship in this holy church. If someone thinks that this wisdom is the capacity of you and me to be wise, he is mistaken. If someone thinks that this wisdom is the capacity of the human being to be wise, great, successful, modern and knowing, he is mistaken. For if we worship all these things, you and I would worship idols. And so we state, we emphasize, that this church is the Church of the Holy Wisdom of God," stated His Beatitude Sviatoslav Shevchuk during his sermon.

His hope for teachers and students is that this church will become the most important "classroom" of the university, in which great wisdom can be attained. Also participating in the ceremonies connected with the consecration of the church were: Liliya Hrynevch, Ukraine's Minister of Education and Science; local officials Oleksandr Hanushchyn, Head of the Lviv Regional Council, Lviv City Mayor Andriy Sadovyy, and Oleh Syniutka, Head of the Lviv Regional Administration; and also clergy of the UGCC, and teachers, students, and benefactors of UCU.

Liliya Hrynevych was a Senator of the university and commented on its rapid development. "As Minister I want to testify that UCU is a leading institution in the non-government area which is both very popular and demanding. Young people with the highest entrance exam scores come here. For us today this is a source of valuable ideas and academic honesty. I hope the university will flourish and I express great gratitude to all UCU's builders. For the university is marching ahead, a great future lies ahead. May the whole country experience the development of this university," added Liliya Hrynevych. On the occasion of the celebration the Head of the UGCC thanked all who worked, dreamed of, and built this holy church. He expressed special gratitude to the President of the University, Bishop Borys Gudziak, and the Rector of the University, Fr. Bohdan Prach, PhD. He also granted a patriarchal honor to the church's architect, Ivan Bereznicki. On the occasion of the celebration the Patriarch of the UGCC also blessed commemorative markers of founders and benefactors who donated to the building of the church.

"May the All-Merciful Lord award you all for your dedicated work and spiritual accompaniment in the building of this church. I hope that you will continue and complete all further work so that the University Church of the Holy Wisdom of God becomes a reflection of God's glory here on earth. We pray that Our Heavenly Father give us good health and plentiful spiritual gifts for the service of the Church and the Ukrainian people." So His Beatitude Sviatoslav thanked all who worked, dreamed of, and built this holy church.

According to the plan, the University Church of the Holy Wisdom of God will become the spiritual core around which will revolve the academic and spiritual and liturgical life of the university. This is a unique church which is a symbol of unity and an incarnation of the Wisdom of God.
