From the Pastor's Desk

On the Sunday, we celebrate the Praznyk of our parish. It is day to give thanks to God for all the blessings that we have received. It is time to honor our patron, St. Joseph. It is also an opportunity to celebrate and socialize with each other as a faith community. May God truly bless all of us on this day. Below is a portion of a reflection on Saint Joseph by Father Thomas Rosica, CSB. May it not only provide insights about the patron of our parish, but also encourage us to seek St. Joseph's intercession before God for all the needs of our parish and our families.

St. Joseph is not the biological father of Jesus, whose Father is God alone, and yet he lives his fatherhood fully and completely. He is often overshadowed by the glory of Christ and the purity of Mary. But he, too, waited for God to speak to him and then responded with obedience. Luke and Matthew both mark Joseph's descent from David, the greatest king of Israel. Scripture has left us with the most important knowledge about him: he was "a righteous man" a "just man" (Matt. 1:18).

Joseph was a compassionate, caring man. Learning that Mary, to whom he was betrothed, was pregnant, and knowing that the child was not his, he planned to divorce her according to the law. As yet he was unaware that she was carrying the Son of God. Joseph, a man of deep kindness, and concerned for her suffering and safety, wanted to keep the divorce as quiet as possible.

Joseph was also a man of faith, obedient to whatever God asked of him regardless of the outcome. When the angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him the truth about the Child that Mary was carrying, Joseph instantly and without question—and without concern for gossip—took her as his wife. Later, when the angel came again to tell him that his family was in danger, he immediately left everything—family, friends, possessions—and fled to a strange country with his wife and the Child. He waited in Egypt until the angel told him it was safe to go back.

Joseph revealed in his humanity the unique role of fathers to proclaim God's truth by word and deed. His paradoxical situation of "foster father to Jesus" draws attention to the truth about fatherhood, which is much more than a mere fact of biological generation. A man is a father most when he invests himself in the spiritual and moral formation of his children. Joseph was keenly aware, as every father should be, that he served as the representative of God the Father.
