SUNDAY OF THE PUBLICAN AND THE PHARISEE

PRE-LENTEN SUNDAY

Most of us would prefer to ease into something slowly. This is one reason why the Church presents us with a special days before Great Lent called Pre-Lent Sundays. Today, we celebrate the Pre-Lent Sunday known as the Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee. In today's Gospel we hear how the pride of the pharisee caused him to brag before God. We also hear how the humility of the publican caused him to bow before God. It is this humble bowing of not only the body, but also the heart and the mind that demonstrates our need for God. Humility is the theme of this Pre-Lent Sunday. It is also the grace that we should pray for on our journey towards the start of Great Lent.

Great Lent begins on Monday February 27, 2017

On Sunday evening
February 26th
a very special service will take place in our church. Every year, when possible, the period of Great Lent should begin with a service called Forgiveness Vespers.

Confidence In Prayer

"Where have you been?" the friendly woman asked the little girl on seeing the child leaving church alone. "In there," said the girl, pointing to the church.

"And what were you doing in church on such a nice day?" the woman asked. The child replied: "Praying." Thinking that the child might need some help, the woman questioned her further, asking, "What were you praying for?" "Nothing," said the girl. "I was just loving God."

Out of the mouths of babes comes great wisdom. God loves us with an unchanging love, and the love we return to Him is what prayer is all about. Sometimes prayer is not so much what we do or say, it's stopping everything else long enough to be in His presence, whether that be in church or elsewhere.

The hard part is making the effort to settle down and open yourself to Him, putting your entire life in His care.

He wants you to trust Him in good times and bad. How can you develop great trust? Perhaps your faith isn't strong enough just now, but it will be. Be patient with yourself. Jesus said, "Be not anxious. . . sufficient unto the day are the day's troubles." (Mt. 6:34)
