The Icon of Pentecost

The icon of the Feast of Holy Pentecost is known as “The Descent of the Holy Spirit”. At the top of the icon is a semicircle with rays coming from it. The rays are pointing outwards and down toward the Apostles, and the tongues of fire are seen descending upon each one of them, signifying the descent of the Holy Spirit and the grace of the Spirit which the Apostles received, as Jesus’s disciples, and which their successors, the bishops of the Church, hold today.

The building in the background of the icon represents the upper room where the Disciples of Christ gathered after the Ascension. The Apostles are shown seated in a semicircle, which is meant to indicate the unity of the Church in all matters of faith. Included in the group of the Apostles is Saint Paul, who, though not present with the others on the day of Pentecost, became an Apostle of the Church after his conversion, and went on to become Her greatest early missionary to the Gentiles. Also included are the four Evangelists, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, holding their respective books of the Gospel, while the other Apostles are holding scrolls that represent the holy teaching authority given to them by Christ.

In the center of the icon below the Apostles, a royal figure is seen against a dark background. This figure, Cosmos, symbolically represents the Gentile peoples of the world who had lived in the darkness and ignorance of pagan worship prior to Christ. However, the figure carries in his hands a cloth containing scrolls, which represent the Gentiles’ reception of the holy teaching of the Apostles. The tradition of the Church holds that the Apostles thus carried the message of the Gospel to all parts of the world, with St. Thomas—formerly “Doubting Thomas”—carrying the Gospel as far east as southern India.

In the icon of Pentecost, we see the fulfillment of Christ’s promise of the Holy Spirit, sent down upon the Apostles, who will soon go out into the world to teach the nations and baptize them in the name of the Holy Trinity. We see here that the early Church was brought together and sustained in deep unity through the presence and work of the Holy Spirit, that the Spirit guides the Church in Her missionary work of spreading the Gospel throughout the world, and that the Spirit nurtures the Body of Christ on earth, the Church, in deep love.

Blessing of Graves All Saints Cemetery will be held on Sunday June 4 (2:00 PM.)

Prayer to Our Mother of Perpetual Help

O Mother of Perpetual Help, we come before your holy Icon seeking to follow Your Son. Mary, please gently guide us to enter more deeply into the mystery of Redemption. Help us as we contemplate the Incarnation, Passion, Death & Resurrection of Your Son, Jesus, Our Redeemer. Help us to receive and accept the Light of Christ present in your arms. Mary, we present our needs to you and ask that you place them in the hands of your Son. Most Holy Mother of God, Our Mother of Perpetual Help, save us. Amen

O Most Holy Mother of God, save us!
Пресвята Богородице, спаси нас!
