Dear Parishioners:

AXIOS!!! A Greek word that means "He is Worthy". This is sung by the church at the ordination of a priest (as well as a deacon and bishop), acknowledging that the candidate is worthy of this ministry in the church. This I experienced and sang for our newly-ordained priest, Fr. Ivan Dzhur, C.Ss.R. while at his ordination in Peremeshl, Poland on November 8, 2023. It was a glorious celebration. Many Redemptorists were present, confreres from Ukraine, Slovakia, Poland, the United States and Canada. A priest is a great gift of our Lord for the Church and for us at St. Joseph's. It is God's way of saying I will not leave you "orphaned" but I will be with you through the actions and words of this new priest. It will be through Fr. Ivan that the Lord will offer His Eucharist to all of you and all the other Mysteries - Baptism, Confession, Marriage, Anointing of the Sick, etc. Let us thank our Lord for this Gift of his mysterious presence through our new priest.

I took the opportunity to visit Ukraine, our workers who labour promoting the knowledge and devotion of Blessed Vasyl throughout Ukraine and Sister Natalia and all of her ministries with the orphans, the abused and vulnerable young girls, and with pregnant mothers from Eastern Ukraine. It was wonderful to be able to bring your support to all of them. In particular we were able to spend some time with the commander of the Lvivski brigand from the Ukrainian Army (a friend of Sister Natalia). He gave us some of the details about the sacrifices our young men and women are making for freedom and peace. Especially moving was our visit to the Lviv cemetery where hundreds of young soldiers are buried. We had to opportunity to pray the Panahyda for them. A very emotional and moving experience!

It's good to be back. Next week has many events including our fundraiser for the military in Ukraine. The Holodomor will also be commemorated next weekend. Check the bulletin for all the upcoming events.

Presentation of the Mother of God in the Temple November 21

The Entrance of the Mother of God into the Temple, also called The Presentation, is one of the 12 Great Feasts of the Church, celebrated on November 21. Although this feast has no basis in history, it stresses an important truth about Mary: From the beginning of her life, she was dedicated to God. She herself became a greater temple than any made by hands. God came to dwell in her in a marvelous manner and sanctified her for her unique role in God's saving work. Mary was the only child of her parents Saint Anne and Saint Joachim. Though it was not obligatory to present a first-born daughter to the Lord, as it was with a first-born son, many Jewish parents did follow this custom. When Mary was presented, she was received by St. Zacharias, the father of St. John the Forerunner, as he was the High Priest at that time. Her presentation at the Temple meant that Mary later probably learned to read sacred Scripture & also to write. This feast reminds us of our fundamental vocation, which is the call to holiness. We are all called to be holy. Like Mary, our first and foremost mission in this life is to live our lives to the fullest. To live a holy life is a tall order but it is not impossible. It is through God's grace that we can fulfill this vocation and mission. The Letter of Paul reminds us of this sublime reality: The grace of the Lord is enough for those who strive to live good and holy lives (cf. 2 Cor, 12:9).
