Dear Parishioners:

This coming week we begin our pre-Christmas preparations with the feast of St. Philip, November 14. On November 15 we begin Pylypivka – a pre-Christmas Fast. This fast period is a bit different from the Great Lent, in that it prepares our heart to receive the new-born Christ. It is a time of waiting. The anticipation does include some type of mortification, that is, a practice to deny oneself something pleasurable in order to experience a deeper part of our selves – our hunger for God. But it is a time to prepare – for the great mystery of God becoming a human being, of God touching this world and sanctifying it by His touch. Pylypivka lasts until Christmas eve (6 weeks). Unfortunately, the world has a different standard. They use the Christmas carol as a means to prepare the mood for buying gifts and stuff. We are asked to refrain from this and instead sing our pre-Christmas songs (although they are few in number). The main point is to prepare our hearts and find room for the Christ-child.

I thank all those who came and volunteered in making perogies. We could have had some more help. The new dough mixer that was purchased worked well and was no longer a cause of delays. The cost of the mixer was substantial ($16,000) and we could use some more financial support to cover the costs of this new machine. Thank you.

Again we had a very beautiful Healing Liturgy this past Wednesday. Many people from all over Winnipeg came to receive God's generosity and healing. It was a beautiful communal prayer service, with everyone participating. It was a time of reconciliation through Confession as we continued to reap the fruits of this Jubilee Year.

We have begun Vespers again on Saturday at 4 pm. The theme of every Sunday in our Church is the Resurrection. The Service of Saturday Vespers emphasises this theme and helps us to enter into the mystery of Life conquering Death through the action of Jesus.

This week we begin the preparation for the Yarmarok. We also thank all those who prepare for the Welcome Home. Have a good week.

Fr. John
