Dear Parishioners,

Today, our Church commemorates Sunday of All Saints of Rus'-Ukraine. All those men and women who heard the call of Jesus in their lives (similarly to that of the fishermen from today's Gospel), and responded to that call with faith and trust – each one of them in their own way.

Martyrs Sts. Borys and Hlib, brothers, stood on the side of truth, faithful to Christ, even as their own brother was killing them. Holy men and women of Kyiv-Pechersk Lavra, who chose the life of prayer and communal life, did so to better respond to the spiritual needs of their time. St. Josaphat, followed the example of St. Stephen the First Martyr, and while dying for the Unity of the Church forgave his killers asked God for their conversion. Bl. Emilian Kovch, Martyr, chose to remain in concentration camp 'Maydanek,' so that he may continue to be the ray of hope to the prisoners of all faiths.

There are many other saints that live among us this very day, soldiers who defend the innocents in the wake of war, doctors and nurses that often work around the clock to save lives, ordinary people like you and I who do the best to our ability to respond to Jesus' call "Come after me" every day and through simple acts, words, and deeds done with love, proclaim the good news to our world.

On the other note, I would like to thank St Joseph's UCWLC league for their generous donation of $2000 towards capital building fund. May God reward their generosity and kindness hundredfold.

Finally the summer is here, which means vacations, weekends at the cabin, lakeside. Please remember to get a good rest. If you are unable to be at Sunday Liturgies in person, please join us via Livestream on our YouTube channel. Please pray for Fr. Yevhen who is away this month for his annual vacations, getting a well deserved rest, and also please pray for each other that God may strengthen us during these summer months.

Have a great week. Many blessings.

Fr Ivan, CSSR

O Mother of Perpetual Help, we come before your holy Icon seeking to follow Your Son.

Mary, please gently guide us to enter more deeply into the mystery of Redemption. Help us as we contemplate the Incarnation, Passion, Death & Resurrection of Your Son, Jesus, Our Redeemer. Help us to receive and accept the Light of Christ present in your arms. Mary, we present our needs to you and ask that you place them in the hands of your Son. Most Holy Mother of God, Our Mother of Perpetual Help, save us. Amen

O Most Holy Mother of God, save us!
