Sunday Divine Liturgy Schedule

Saturday Divine Liturgy 5:00 P.M. (ENG)

Sunday 10:00 A.M (UKR & ENG)

Blessed Vasyl Devotions: Wednesday 7:00 P.M.

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to begin by thanking everyone who took part and attended our Parish Praznyk. Everyone commented that it felt like a true family time of prayer and fellowship. A very special thank you to our sponsor for catering the meal, and the ladies from Ukraine who provided the delicious Ukrainian style pastries. I believe it was a successful and nice time shared by all who attended.

From October 5th—9th, I will be attending the Archeparchy Priestly Retreat at Hecla Island. This is a time of shared prayer and spiritual renewal for the priests of the Archeparchy. At this time, we will also have an opportunity to meet with Metropolitan-elect Bishop Michael Kwiatkowski. Fr. John Sianchuk, CSsR will be the contact in the event of an emergency.

For those of you who can lend a hand, please consider coming out to help with our Perogy Bee on October 6th & 7th. The orders are full, so many hands are needed to assist in filling them.

October 12th is our national holiday of Thanksgiving. I greet all of you and your families with this holiday. May all of us share a true thank you to our families, friends, co-workers and most especially to our God. Thankfulness is a very important virtue in our Christian lives. I personally would like to give thanks to God for calling me to His service, of which it will be the 30 anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood by Bishop Michael Hrynchyshyn, on October 13, 1996 in Ukraine.

On Sunday, October 18th we are returning to our Fall and Winter Divine Liturgy Schedule. Saturdays remain the same at 5:00 pm, however there will be two services on Sunday ~ 9:00 am (Ukrainian) and 11:00 am (English). Looking forward to seeing you there. Also, just to let you know, some of the Redemptorist Fathers from our Parish will be covering in Kenora and at St. Andrew's here in Winnipeg for Fr. Ivan Mostivsky on the weekends of October 11/12 and 17/18.

And just as you want people to do to you, do the same to them. – Jesus

Allow me to share a few thoughts about today's Gospel reading. Our Lord Jesus Christ gives us the golden rule": as we treat others, so they treat us. The way we treat our neighbours determines how we allow them to treat us. Very often in life we take issue with how others behave toward us – someone gave us a wrong look, said the wrong thing, reacted poorly, or treated us unfairly. Sometimes we even imagine things that never actually happened. We are deeply hurt by the actions of others toward us, yet we fail to notice our own actions toward them. It hurts us deeply when we are wounded, but we can very easily and unwillingly inflict pain and wounds upon others. The rule given to us by Jesus is very simple: let us do to others what we want them to do to us. If we want to be forgiven, let us forgive; if we want to be loved, let us love. If we don't want to be hurt, let us not hurt others; if we don't want to be humiliated, let us not humiliate others. For what we do to our neighbours, they will do to us! Let us believe in these words of Jesus and strive to put them into practice with the help of God's grace!

Once again, I greet you with our upcoming Thanksgiving holiday. May our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ bless you and your families with the abundant graces of good health, love, thankfulness and gratefulness for all of the goodness in our lives.

With heartfelt thanks for your support and kindness,
Fr. Yevhen

O Holy Father, You sent your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to heal every infirmity. Heal your servants of every spiritual and bodily ill which afflicts them. Restore them by Your grace, and through the prayers of the Mother of God and Ever-Virgin Mary, and of all your Saints. For You, are the fountain of healing, and we glorify You together with your only-begotten Son, and your Spirit, now and ever, and forever. Amen.
